Dear Miss []

Your letter of 8 October 1952, addressed to the Director of Central Intelligence regarding your employment by the Central Intelligence Agency, has been referred to me for reply.

I learn from the Personnel Office that, following a full discussion of the subject yesterday, you have resigned.

Although no useful purpose would be served by repeating in this letter what was explained to you in the Personnel Office, I do wish to add my assurance that the decision not to accept you as a personnel employee is no reflection on your competence, character or loyalty any more than it is on the many others who apply for employment and are not accepted because of the special nature of the Agency's employment requirements.

FOR THE INSPECTOR GENERAL:

Very truly yours,
